≡ Eat, Drink, and Be Merry

THANKSGIVING should be every day of the year, don't you think? The Lubbock Women's Club provides so much for which to be thankful. The Club allows us to gather with old friends and make new ones. Some of us enjoy the games we play together and the book clubs where we discuss our insights. The Wine Dinners, Cosmo Clubs, and Special Events allow us to be social as nowhere else does. The Roundtables enlighten and edify us at every lunch program, where we enjoy fine dining served by sweet staff members. For many ladies, the Club gives us a reason to stay active and informed as we dress up and get out and about.

But now, about the Thanksgiving Holiday itself: that special day with friends and family, fabulous food and special beverages, football games, and family activities, all give us ways to Eat, Drink, and Be Merry in abundance.

Blessed to be a Blessing. Sherry Blankenship

From the JWC corner:

November is an ideal time to practice gratitude. This month, take the opportunity to pause and appreciate the blessings that have graced our year.

Among the things I hold dear, The Lubbock Women's Club and the cherished friendships it has brought into my life always top the list. I am equally grateful for The LWC staff, who's always "Johnny-on-the-spot." Their tireless efforts ensure that our gatherings, luncheons, and events are exquisite and bring us closer as a community. There is always so much to be thankful for.

We are looking forward to the coming holidays with great enthusiasm. The Lubbock Women's Club unfurls itself in splendor, and this year, it welcomes us with a fresh array of décor, promising to add an extra touch of magic to our shared experiences.

I can't wait for what is to come!

Warm regards,

Ashley Howland
