From the President

It's time to kick off the year with football, friends and fun activities at The Lubbock Women's Club, beginning with the Dillard's Style Show, "Fall In Love with Fashion," on September 4. Take advantage of this opportunity to find yourself a few special pieces to wear at football games, events around town, and at the Club. *Effective September 2024, all style shows will be $25.

Our new yearbook is ready for pick-up with lots of great information including roundtables, special events, projects, trips, membership and more! A huge THANK YOU to Dee Ann Holder and her committee for carrying out my theme so beautifully. I am excited to have received my personal copy during the Fall Coffee, chaired by Nancy Barr and her committee. Wow! Another great coffee with much activity that was enjoyed by active and prospective members. Let's not forget our Marketing Chairperson, Kandy Adams, who began early in the year approaching businesses and selling ads. The monies collected from these ads help pay for the yearbook, yearbook photos and printing of the Courier. Job well done ladies!

Guests went "wild" for Kathy Britton and her committee's "Wine on the Wild Side" Gourmet Dinner & Wine Tasting featuring excellent wines paired with Chef Martin's fine cuisine in an exotic, jungle-themed setting. Be sure to make your reservations for the next wine dinner in January 2025.

Jill Baker will be hosting the New Member Orientation on September 18 at 10:00am. For those of you who have sponsored new members into the Club, please make a point to contact these ladies and invite them to join you at the brunch. Don't forget to make your reservations.

Come enjoy lunch and "Fall Tablescapes & Decor" on the 23rd which will offer interesting ideas for your home.

Hee-Haw! Fall is just around the corner, and it's time to Cowgirl and Cowboy up at All Things Texas "Under the Texas Sky," on September 26 at 6:00pm. Come celebrate Texas with vendors, silent & live auctions, barbecue & beverages, and entertainment provided by Kenny Maines. I would like to encourage you to attend, to bring a friend(s), and to bring your bucks!

Refer to your Courier each month as the Club offers fresh and exciting programs for all LWC and JWC members.

It is good to know that the Club and its members continue to shine brightly...

Together We Shine

The 2024-2025 "Together We Shine" Yearbooks are here! If you did not get your copy of the yearbook at the Fall Coffee, you may pick it up at the Club during regular hours. You don't want to miss any of the exciting LWC/JWC events planned for this year at The Lubbock Women's Club.

FROM THE JWC CORNER:

Dear Friends,

JWC has kicked it in high gear and we have a busier fall than ever! We started August off right with a girls' trip to Boerne. We enjoyed sun, fun and lots of shopping with a gracious and kind group of LWC and JWC members combined. If there is even an event you should not miss, it is this one. The environment leads to fast, deep and true friendships. And don't worry, planning for next year is already in the works.

We were also able to bring in our youth, daughters and sons and loved ones, to enjoy our legacy lunch. With these kids as our future, we have nothing to worry about.

Looking ahead, September will be one of our best months yet! Be sure to register online for the all-day wine tour. We are going to love spending time with you! We will host our first joint lunch with the LWC and JWC titled, "My Favorite Things." Bring your favorite product, heirloom, person, or trick and make sure you have your amazon cart handy. You are going to want to order a few of the items you see!

Last but certainly not least, please join in on the fundraising opportunities provided by our hardworking JWC committees. Register online for our Pickleball Clinics and Tournament. This community event has been successful thus far in educating non-members about the Club and our wonderful activities. We hope to see membership growth and a successful fundraising endeavor through these events.

We are also taking orders for one of my favorite dishes from Chef Martin. Whether entertaining at your home, bringing a meal to a sick loved one, or welcoming a new neighbor, the Gouda Chicken casserole is sure to please, served with Broccoli Au Gratin and Ratatouille and the option to add on cheesecake for an additional $10. What a fun and easy way to bring the tastes of the Club to your loved ones!

All the Best,

Leslie Ann Kitten
JWC President
